

IB DP History: Extended Essay Planning Portfolio

Page 1: Administrative Profile & History Registry

Student Name:

Extended Essay Subject: History

Supervisor Name:

The Precise Historical Event/Movement:

The Strict Chronological/Temporal Boundaries:

Pre-Submission Checklist

- ☐ Topic focuses on an event that occurred at least 10 years ago
- ☐ Research question is narrowly focused (not an overly broad narrative summary)
- ☐ Clear identification of historical causality or significance

Warning: Ensure your topic is NOT a broad overview. The IB requires a focused, analytical research question with clear temporal boundaries.

IB DP History: Extended Essay Planning Portfolio

Page 3: Disciplinary Concepts & Historiography Workshop

Causation

Drafting space for tracing multi-causal factors (e.g., Gorbachev's political reforms vs. economic policy failures)

Consequence

Mapping immediate and long-term impacts (e.g., the growth of nationalism)

Perspectives

Contrasting differing schools of historical thought

Significance

Evaluating the weight of a specific group/factor (e.g., the WCTU in gaining the vote for women)

IB DP History: Extended Essay Planning Portfolio

Page 4: Line of Argument & Research Question Formulator

Box 1: The Isolated Historical Event

Box 2: The Specific Policy, Group, or Leader Focused On

Box 3: The Temporal Years/Bounds

Finalized History Research Question Draft

The Balanced Line of Argument: Balancing Counter-Explanations to Avoid a One-Sided Narrative

IB DP History: Extended Essay Planning Portfolio

Page 2: Source Authentication Hub & Archives Log

Primary First-Hand Sources

Constitutional changes, official state decrees, contemporary news records, letters, diaries, WCTU historical documents

Secondary Sources & Historiographical Works

Academic biographies, historical journal debates, and external analyses